CORLISTA REEVE
NAMED CHRISTMAS
SEAL CHAIRMAN

Christmas Seal workers throughout the county attended a luncheon meeting Friday to make final plans for the forthcoming campaign, it was revealed by Miss Corlista A. Reeve, 2108 Gramercy, who has been named Christmas Seal chairman for Torrance.

The meeting was held at the Woman's University Club, 4819 Beverly Blvd., Los Angeles, and the volunteers participated in a panel discussion on campaign problems.

Announcement that Miss Reeve had been named to head the local Christmas Seal Committee came from Kenneth B. Wilson, chairman of the Combined Christmas Seal Fund, who disclosed that the group will place "self-sellers" in retail establishments and staff a sales booth for the benefit of those who do not receive their Christmas Seals through the mails.

"Christmas Seals are a 'must' on everyone's shopping list, for they support the year-round fight against tuberculosis, heart disease and rheumatic fever," Wilson said. "I am sure that everyone in Torrance will cooperate with Miss Reeve's committee so the local drive will be a success."

Committee members will be announced soon, Miss Reeve stated.

LOUISE JANET ROBBINS Reveals engagement...

Mrs. J. Paul Jones of West Palm Beach, Florida, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Louise Janet Robbins, to Mr. Cecil A. (Bert) Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil W. Smith, of 1608 Hickory avenue. No wedding date has been set.

Miss Robbins is a member of Torrance Junior High School faculty. She was graduated from Florida Southern College. Her fiancé was graduated from Torrance High School and attended University of California at Berkeley where he studied business administration and foreign trade. He is employed with the office staff of American Standard Corp.

TOWNSEND CLUB IS HEADED BY FLORENCE HALL

Jack Fleh and his orchestra will provide music for dancing for members and friends of Torrance Townsend Club No. 1 at their weekly party Friday evening in Woman's clubhouse.

Bunco will begin at 7:30 with a special prize for the winner. Two door prizes will be given away during the evening. Everyone is invited.

At the business meeting held this week Mrs. Florence Hall was elected president for the new club year.

ROBERT TRIPLETTS TELL BIRTH OF SON

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Triplett, of 2115 Gramercy avenue, are the proud parents of their first child, a son, Robert Joe, born in Torrance Memorial Hospital.

The baby's maternal grandmother is Mrs. Sara Hogue, of this city.

When you see a good man, think of emulating him: when you see a bad man, examine your own heart.—Confucius. Nobody ever got indigestion eating humble pie.

Halldale Students, PTA
Members Reveal Success of Halloween Carnival

With their first Halloween Carnival held in their new building a brilliant success the Halldale school children, faculty members, and the PTA executive board were completely happy. A very large group of parents and friends gathered to view a vast array of costumes, with the children parading like well trained actors and actresses.

Costumes were judged for the spookiest, most original, ugliest, prettiest, most authentic and funniest. Judges were Mesdames Minot Rugg, Dan Spitz and Albert Ewalt. Winners for the lower grades were Donna Rich, Bernice Flores, Gwendolyn Abbott, Curtis Manning, Jimmie Hageman, Jackie Patton, Curtis Schimmel, Marie Jordan, Patsy O'Neil, Laura Powell, Robert O'Neil and Clifford Griffin.

Those winning from the upper grades were Sandra Burgess, Opal Chapman, Ted Unander, Bobby Edens, Wesley Hanson, Judy Wolf, Herbert Provo, Robert Plympton, Raejean Lease, Norma Schimmick, Elmer Ellsworth and Marie Clifford.

Following the awarding of the ribbons Monty Montana and his pet horse "Rex" entertained the group. At the close of the program a carnival lunch was served at a nominal charge by the Halldale PTA. Approximately $75 was cleared from the sale of hot dogs, pop, ice cream and coffee. Fifty per cent of this is to be turned over to the student body fund of the school and the remainder was placed in the PTA treasury.

Musicians
at Opera Work Shop

Kathryne Buffington and Nadine Nickol, musicians of Torrance, Friday attended the Opera Work Shop in Scenes from the Great Operas directed by Dr. Ian Alexander, and produced by the Department of Music of George Pepperdine College.

The outstanding work of the music department was well-expressed in five scenes from different operas. Perhaps the most beautifully costumed and staged was the Act I scene from the opera "Aida" by Verdi. The scenery and costumes were created by the Fine Arts Department and added greatly to the production.

The dean of music, Dr. Russell N. Squire, also belongs to the Music Teachers' Association, of which Kathryne Buffington and Nadine Nickol also are members.

O.E.S. Sets Election

Election of officers will be on the agenda for this evening's meeting of Torrance Chapter No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star.

Chairman of arrangements will be Althea Smith.

GIRL SCOUTS ELECTION IS HELD FRIDAY

Girl Scouts of Troop 610, under leadership of Mrs. Rose Jones elected officers at their meeting held Friday at Scout House.

Chosen to serve during the new term are: Muriel Gately, president; Shirley Moody, vice-president; Jane Gately, secretary; Maxine Cully, treasurer; Rose Marie Morris, reporter; Jeannie Whitten, senior patrol leader; Sharon Felker, No. 2 patrol leader; Ann Webb, No. 1 patrol leader; Agnes Morris is past president of the troop.

Highlighting the month's activities was the group's introduction to ceramics with a new class started Oct. 8. Their first pieces were completed last Friday with satisfying results, according to Rose Marie Morris, reporter.
